Press Release

HK Audio joins forces with König & Meyer for new accessory range

January 23 2017 // St. Wendel, Germany

German music industry powerhouses HK Audio and König & Meyer are joining forces from 2017.

HK Audio's globally renowned range of pro audio systems will – as of spring 2017 – benefit from a range of accessories tailor-made in Germany by König & Meyer.

The first available product is the Stereo Stand Add-On option for the compact LUCAS NANO 600 series systems, which has been introduced at the 2017 Winter NAMM show in Anaheim, California, with more to follow over the coming months.

Nils Stamer, HK Audio's Chief Executive Officer, said: "We're extremely happy to be able to partner with König & Meyer. Just like us, they value their decades of 'Made In Germany' heritage, and just like us, their products are internationally recognized as the best in their class. Together, we're looking forward to injecting all our collective knowledge and knowhow into this new range of accessories to help make 2017 the best year yet for HK Audio and our users!"

Gabriela König, CEO of König & Meyer, said: "We are proud to be collaborating with HK Audio. Together, our companies have over 100 years of tradition and experience in the music business, with both brands being synonymous in their respective sectors for sophistication and high-quality, innovative products. I look forward to us now being able to pool our resources to improve the HK Audio experience for the brand's customers and users worldwide."
